

Reading Response

What do you know?

1. Write your name in the top left corner of refill.
2. Write the date at the top in the middle.
3. Write your class at the top right corner of the page.
4. Write 1 – 15 down your page.

NOTE: This is to help me know what you know, not the person beside you!

Pre-test Instructions

1. There will be 10 multi choice questions i.e. the answer is 1 of 4.
2. And 5 short answer questions i.e. you write what you think.

Pre-test Instructions

A reading response is?

- a. Reading and writing.
- b. What the reader thinks about a book/story.
- c. Talking about reading a book.
- d. None of the above.

Q1

What 4 things should your response start with?

- a. Object of Desire; Conflict; Crisis; Climax;
- b. Character; Setting; Orientation; Resolution;
- c. Hook; Introduction; Question; Statement;
- d. Title; Author; Text Type; Date finished reading;

Q2

What is a synopsis?

- a. A summary of the plot
- b. A summary of the orientation
- c. A summary of the complication
- d. A summary of the resolution

Q3

Where does the synopsis come in your reading response?

- a. After you explain why you liked the book
- b. After the date you finished reading
- c. After you make connections to self
- d. After you make connections to the world

Q4

What is extended text?

- a. A short story
- b. A film
- c. A novel
- d. A poem

Q5

What is evidence in a reading response?

- a. The truth from the story
- b. Proof someone is guilty
- c. Something used in court
- d. Examples from the story

Q6

When explaining what you like about a story, you should include:

- a. Character and Setting
- b. Ideas and Story
- c. Style
- d. All of the above

Q7

When talking about STYLE in a reading response it refers to:

- a. The words used (vocabulary)
- b. Imagery (metaphors, similes etc)
- c. The writers craft (how they write)
- d. All of the above

Q8

Connecting the story with your own experience(s) means:

- a. Sharing your thoughts and feelings
- b. Similar things that happened to you
- c. Finding ways you can relate to the story
- d. All of the above

Q9

Connecting the story with the world means?

- a. Similar current events or history
- b. Where in the world the story is set
- c. Using real countries
- d. Drawing lines between 2 countries

Q10

Define what a personal reading response is?

Q11

List 3 things a reading response should have in it?

Q12

Explain how you can “connect” with the book/story?

Q13

Explain how you can “connect” the book
with the world?

Q14

Where should you get your “evidence” from when writing your reading response?

Q15

FAST CARS

1

TALKING WITH THE DEAD

2

FRIENDSHIP/RELATIONSHIPS

3

Pick the # that interests you most and write that on your test!